Lamb Weston Global Sustainability Report: 2025 Fiscal Year

"In fiscal year 2025, we continued to focus on embedding sustainability across all of our operations and global supply chain — driving progress that supports our people, strengthens our business, and advances our environmental stewardship," said Sylvia Wilks, chief supply chain officer of Lamb Weston. "Looking ahead, our commitment to sustainability will remain measurable, values driven, and focused on creating value for our business, customers, and team members."

Grounded in the company's approach to Making Fries and Making Strides, the report highlights progress across three core focus areas: People, supporting our team members and communities where we operate; Food, delivering safe, trusted, high-quality products; and Planet, advancing environmental stewardship across the global value chain.

Key progress updates featured in the Global Sustainability Report for fiscal year 2025 include:

- People:
  - >15% year-over-year reduction in recordable injury rates from fiscal year 2024
  - More than $830,000 donated to community programs, including food banks
- Food:
  - 99.5% Global Food Safety Initiative (GFSI) certification of Tier 1 ingredient supplier facilities
  - More than 230 audits completed, including internal, third-party food safety, quality, and customer audits
- Planet:
  - 6% year-over-year reduction in freshwater use intensity from fiscal year 2024
  - 85% of primary packaging is recyclable, reusable, and/or compostable
  - 98% of waste diverted from disposal
